Descendants of Abraham Lindsey

Generation No. 1

1. ABRAHAM¹ LINDSEY was born Abt. 1723 in Probably Maryland, and died Abt. 1794 in Probably Newberry County, SC. He married WIFE OF ABRAHAM LINDSEY. She was born Abt. 1730.

Notes for ABRAHAM LINDSEY:

The information for Abraham is from the research of Susan Grabek and William Thorndale. To Susan, my deepest gratitude for all your hard work and your willingness to share.

Abraham 'might' have been the son of Edmund Lindsey b 1697 who was married 1725 to Elizabeth Beasley in Cecil County, Maryland and moved to Frederick County, Virginia in 1733.

1744: Abraham Lindsey in Fairfax, Virginia voted in the House of Burgesses election for Captain Lawrence Washington. From 'Gleanings of Virginia History' by William Fletcher Bougher. As only land owners could vote, it is thought Abraham's land was the 76 acre tract on Goose Creek in Fairfax County, for which he received a grant in 1745. This record is in Virginia Northern Neck Grant Book F., page 226.

Abraham Lindsay of Fairfax Co. 76 A. in said Co.Surv. Mr. William West.Adj. Col. Landon Carter, on Goose Cr., Jacob Binks. 10 July 1745

1760: Abraham Lindsey was a witness for the sale of some land on the Long Marsh between Edmond Lindsey Sr., and Edmond Lindsey Jr.

1761: Abraham Lindsey was a member of the Frederick County, Virginia militia: From Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck's 'Virginia Colonial Soldiers', page 352;

'At a Court Martial held 10 October 1761': From Captain Thomas Speak's company: The following fines were levied: ... Fined 10 shs for missing 1 private muster: Isaac Lindsey ... Abraham Lindsey.

1763: From Loudoun County, Virginia Deed Book 'D' 1763-1765, pages 3-5:

25th and 26th July, 1763 - Abraham Lindsey, of the County of Craven, Province of South Carolina sells to John Neavell, of the County of Frederick, Colony of Virginia, for [Lease 5 shill-Release £50] a certain tract of land in Loudon County, on the Northwest side of Goose Creek, on a branch called Tuacarora, alias Sicotin's Branch, containing 134 acres of land, etc.... Witnesses: James Lindsey, Joseph Pierce, John Lindsey, Jr. proved and recorded 11 1763.

Note: Craven County South Carolina in 1763 included the area that later would be come Laurens and Newberry Counties.

According to the bill of sale from James Steen made to Abraham's son, John Lindsey, we know Abraham lived in the Enoree Settlement of Berkeley County South Carolina - which was to become Newberry County.

1771: The Hite-Fairfax lawsuit shows Abraham's name as one of the LONG MARSH Lindsey family as follows: Abraham Lindsey, 850 acres surveyed 6 December 1735. Survey numbers 10, 11.

He may have moved to Wilkes County, Georgia as there are records showing an Abraham Lindsey in this county with a son named Edmond. Probably he died in the Enoree Settlement of South Carolina.

Notes for WIFE OF ABRAHAM LINDSEY:

Her name may have been Hannah.

Children of ABRAHAM LINDSEY and WIFE LINDSEY are:

2. i. JOHN² LINDSEY, b. Abt. 1749, Probably Virginia; d. 1810, Maury County, TN.

3. ii. EZEKIEL LINDSEY, b. Aft. 1749, Virginia; d. 1784, Abbeville District, South Carolina.

iii. EDMUND LINDSEY.

Notes for EDMUND LINDSEY:

There are records for a man of this name in Maury County, Tennessee as well as some census records. But nothing more is known about him and his family. This needs research.

Generation No. 2

2. JOHN² LINDSEY (*ABRAHAM*¹) was born Abt. 1749 in Probably Virginia, and died 1810 in Maury County, TN. He married (1) MARY UNKNOWN. She was born Abt. 1750, and probably died Abt. 1823 in ?Lauderdale County, AL?.

Notes for JOHN LINDSEY:

From Laurens County, South Carolina Deed Book A page 294: 607 December 1774, James Steen and his wife, Elener, sold 300 acres on the south bank of the Enoree River to John Lindsey, the son of Abraham Lindsey of Enoree settlement, Berkeley County, South Carolina. Deed recorded in Secretary State Office Grant Bk CCC page 365 and in Auditor's Book Q-N5 page 145 on 14 October 1768 to James Steen. Wit: Peter Brooks, William Moore, John Steen.:"

It is presumed this John Lindsey was specifically noted to be the son of Abraham to separate him from the several John Lindsey's who were in the area at this time.

1790 Census Laurens County South Carolina:

Capt. John Lindsey: has 5 males under age 16 and 2 males over 15. Also 3 females. This fits exactly for John Lindsey with himself and his 6 sons, 2 daughters and wife, Mary.

12 May 1791, John Lindsey and wife, Mary of Laurens County, SC sold five contiguous tracts on the south side of the Enoree River to Thomas Holden, also of Laurens County. The acreage included half of the tract John had purchased from James Steen in 1774. Recorded 6 August 1793 in Laurens County deed book E, page 16. These tracts adjoined the 'widow Lindsey'. This person is presumed to be Elizabeth Lindsey who is shown living near John and his family in the 1790 census, with her 3 sons, Ezekiel, Edmond and Isaac B. Lindsey. Her husband was Ezekiel Sr. Lindsey.

Franklin County Deed Book K, pages 11b-12. Deed dated 31 October 1791 from William Queen Sr., to John Lindsey in cons. £100., conveys 287 1/2 acres in Franklin County on North Fork Oconee River, granted to said Queen, adj. land surveyed for Isaac Fuller, signed 'William Queen [x]'. Wit: J. Barnett, Henry Hamilton, John Lafferty ---Espy JP.

Same Book, page 176: Deed dated GA 22 December 1792, from John Webb of Washington County, Georgia to John Barnett of Franklin County in cons. of £50 conveys 287 1/2 acres in Franklin County, granted to James Stewart and conveyed to said Webb by John Stewart, attorney for said James Stewart, 22 November 1785. Wit: John Lindsey, H. Hamilton, Benja. Parr.

Deeds of Franklin Co., GA 1784-1826, page 152: Deed dated 5 November 1792, recorded 4 October 1793, from John Lindsey and wife Mary to John Lafferty, all of Franklin County. In cons. of £50 conveys 143 3/4 acres in Franklin County being one half of one bounty of 287 1/2 acres granted to William Queen 26 February, 1785 on the North Fork of the Oconee River. Adj. Isaac Fuller. Wit: Arthur Patton, Jacob Lindsey, Thomes Espy, J. P.

Jackson County, Georgia Deed Abstracts, Books A-D 1796-1808, deed from Thomas Holden of Laurens County, SC to John Lindsey of Jackson County, GA £20 for 690 acres, conveyed to Thomas Holden by Zachariah Cox adjoining on one side to John Stroder and all other sides to Zachariah Cox. Signed: Thos. Holden. Witness: John Cox, John Pearson, Ezekil [his "E" mark]Griffeth. Sworn by John Cox in Laurens County, 96 District, SC before Roger Brown, J. P. 12 October 1796. Recorded 9 August 1798

. Jackson County, GA Deed Abstracts, Books A-D 1796-1808: Page 504. 24 February, 1806, deed from John Lindsay to Alexander Harper, both of Jackson County, consideration of $935 for 190 acres lying at time of survey in Franklin County on the Continental reserve on the Walnut fork of Oconee, shown on plat affixed to original Grant to Zachariah Cox 20 September 1787, conveyed to Thomas Holden, and by Holden to Lindsey. Signed: John Lindsey. Witness: David Dickson, Abram Lindsey, Stephen [x] Bryant. Sworn by David Dickson 24 March 1807 before John Wright, J. P. Recorded 23 April 1897.

Notes for MARY UNKNOWN:

As John specifically stated in his will that the property he gave to his wife, Mary, would be distributed among the surviving heirs at her death, it seems probable she died in Lauderdale County, Alabama around 1823 when a Probate of John's will was ordered for the heirs of son Jacob Lindsey, deceased. Jacob and Ezekiel Lindsey were the administrators of their father's will. Both are mentioned in this probate found in Florence, Alabama.

Children of JOHN LINDSEY and MARY UNKNOWN are:

i. ABRAHAM³ LINDSEY.

Notes for ABRAHAM LINDSEY:

Nothing found for Abram except he signed several deeds and some court papers for family members while in Georgia.

ii. JOSIAH LINDSEY.

Notes for JOSIAH LINDSEY:

It looks as though he was the only one in the family to win some land in the Georgia Land Lottery, and later asked his brother, Abram, to look after it for him. Obviously he moved from the area. He was sometimes in trouble. Claiborn Barnett, his brother-in-law helped him out with one unknown problem that possibly involved the law.

4. iii. JACOB H. LINDSEY, b. Abt. 1775, Probably South Carolina; d. Bet. 1815 - 1816, New Madrid County, MO.

iv. RUTH LINDSEY, m. CLAIBORNE BARNET.

Notes for RUTH LINDSEY:

Her name was spelled Rutha in her father's will.

Notes for CLAIBORNE BARNET:

Seems to have been close to the family and helped when a brother-in-law needed it. He was repaid for that help by his father-in-law, John Lindsey. Who, in his will that was probated 1810 in Maury County, Tennessee, gave him a wagon for the help he'd given to Josiah Lindsey.

v. MARY LINDSEY, m. JOHN CUNNINGHAM.

Notes for MARY LINDSEY:

Nothing known about Mary Lindsey and John Cunningham.

vi. JOHN LINDSEY.

5. vii. EZEKIEL LINDSEY, b. Bet. 1775 - 1788, South Carolina; d. Abt. 1825, Hardin County, Tennessee.

viii. ISAAC LINDSEY, b. 1788, South Carolina.

Child of JOHN LINDSEY and MRS. LINDSEY is:

ix. EZEKIAL³ LINDSEY, b. Aft. 1776; d. 1825, Hardin County, Tennessee.

3. EZEKIEL² LINDSEY (ABRAHAM¹) was born Aft. 1749 in Virginia, and died 1784 in Abbeville District, South Carolina. He married ELIZABETH UNKNOWN.

Notes for EZEKIEL LINDSEY:

"Abstracts of Old 96 and Abbeville District Wills and Bonds" by Willie Pauline Young...

Box 54, Pack 1276:

'Lindsay, Ezekiel Est. Admnr. Feb 21, 1784,. by Betty Lindsay, Henry Hamilton bound to Jno. Thomas Jr. Ord. 96 Dist,.sum 2,000 lbs. Inv. made 10 May 1784 by Jno. Lindsay, Patrick Laffety, Josiah Vines.'

William Thorndale believes this Ezekiel to be the son of Abraham and brother of John Lindsey. Also believes John and Ezekiel bought land together which John later sold to the three sons of Elizabeth for a nominal fee. When John moved to Maury County, Tennessee the three sons moved there to be near him, their uncle. The 1790 census shows Captain John Lindsey with 7 males and 3 females in his household. Living nearby was Elizabeth Lindsey with 3 males and 1 female in her household.

Children of EZEKIEL LINDSEY and ELIZABETH UNKNOWN are:

i. EDWARD³ LINDSEY.

ii. EZEKIEL LINDSEY, d. Bef. 1806, Maury County, TN; m. HANNAH UNKNOWN.

iii. ISAAC B. LINDSEY.

Generation No. 3

4. JACOB H.³ LINDSEY (*JOHN*², *ABRAHAM*¹) was born Abt. 1775 in Probably South Carolina, and died Bet. 1815 - 1816 in New Madrid County, MO.

More About JACOB H. LINDSEY:

Burial: New Madrid County, Missouri

Probate: 1817, New Madrid County, Missouri

Children of JACOB H. LINDSEY are:

6. i. ANNA⁴ LINDSEY, b. 1804, Georgia; d. 1852, Cooper County, Missouri.

7. ii. BARSHEBA LINDSEY, b. 1806, Georgia; d. 09 Apr 1860, Saline County, Missouri.

8. iii. MAHALA ELIZABETH LINDSEY, b. 07 Oct 1808, Tennessee; d. 07 Mar 1875, Arvada, Jefferson County, Colorado.

9. iv. MARY ELLEN LINDSEY, b. 1810, Tennessee; d. 20 Jan 1881, Lewis Township, Holt County, Missouri.

5. EZEKIEL³ LINDSEY (*JOHN*², *ABRAHAM*¹) was born Bet. 1775 - 1788 in South Carolina, and died Abt. 1825 in Hardin County, Tennessee. He married ELIZABETH MCNEELEY 22 Jul 1807 in Wilson County, Tennessee. She was born Abt. 1782 in Virginia, and died Aft. 1840 in Probably Hardin County, Tennessee.

Notes for EZEKIEL LINDSEY:

That Ezekiel married this Elizabeth McNeely is uncertain, but this is the only marriage found for an Ezekiel Lindsey in the time and place frame that could fit, other than that of his cousin. Another Ezekiel who married a lady named Nancy Green, and Nancy is administrator in his will. This Ezekiel was the son of Isaac Lindsey of Lindsey's Bluff in Sumner County, Tennessee and died before 1825.

The names of the children of Ezekiel and Elizabeth were taken from the will, no further research has been done on this family.

Ezekiel was probably living in Lauderdale County, Alabama in 1822/23 when a probate was performed for the orphan heirs of his brother, Jacob. He seemed to be his own representative in the estate settlement. From the wording of his father's will, Ezekiel's mother may have been living with him or another brother after the death of his father in 1810, and she died in 1822 or 1823, hence the division of property willed to Ezekiel and his brother, Jacob. H. Lindsey.

From records found in Hardin County, Tennessee Ezekiel died in early 1825 and his estate was probated in that county. He named his brother, Isaac Lindsey, and his wife Elizabeth Lindsey as Executors of his property. And named Isaac guardian of his minor age children.

The following information was hand copied from microfilm located in the Hardin County, Tennessee Public Library. No printing facility was available. There were no records earlier than 1860 to be found in the Hardin County Courthouse.

Monday 20 June 1825:

"The last will and Testament of Ezekiel Lindsey was presented by Isaac Lindsey and Elizabeth Lindsey the executor and executrix therein named and the execution thereof proven by the oath of George W. Guthrie, John Reynolds, and Seth Baker subscribing witnesses thereto and the said Isaac Lindsey & Elizabeth Lindsey took the oath of Executors of the said Will etc."

Monday 19th December 1825:

"Ordered by the Court that Isaac Lindsey be appointed guardian of JOHN W. LINDSEY, WILLIAM T. LINDSEY, ELIZABETH LINDSEY, POLLY LINDSEY, PHEBE LINDSEY, JOSIAH G. LINDSEY, and ISAAC L. LINDSEY, Infant Heirs of Ezekiel Lindsey deceased - and entered into bond - in the sum of five thousand dollars with CHARLES B. NEILSON and [looks like] DAURITY/DUIRARITY? BAKER as Securities which bond they acknowledged in open court.'

No Date: Ordered that Isaac Lindsey be released from serving as a juror at this time.

Monday 19 December 1825:

"Isaac Lindsey, Executor of the last will and Testament of Ezekiel Lindsey dec'd, returns the account [looks like account] of Sale of said deceased Estate."

Notes for ELIZABETH MCNEELEY:

She is shown as head of household for 1830 and 1840 census in Hardin County, Tennessee. No records found of her in a later census.

According to Rootsweb family files, she was the daughter of William McNeeley.

Children of EZEKIEL LINDSEY and ELIZABETH MCNEELEY are:

Cooper County, Missouri Circuit Court - November Term 1824:

"On motion of William Mullins and Bashaba his wife, Robert Boyd Guardian for Mahal Lindsey, Michael Hornback Guardian for Mary Lindsey, Robert Pogue and Anna his wife, the heirs and representatives of Jacob Lindsey, deceased, who filed petition therefore as the law directs, ordered that Benjamin F. Hickox, David Trotter, James Miller, Thomas Rogers and Archibold Kavanaugh or any three of whom being sworn as the law directs to proceed to partition and divide the lands of said petitioners as set forth in their said petition, twit: One tract of 113 1/3 acres which said tract entered by virtue of a New Madrid Certificate and is a part of the NW Quarter of Section 7 in Township 48, Range 16 west of the fifth principal meridian and that they report their proceedings herein to the Court agreeable to law."

1825: Cooper County, Missouri court papers:

"Divide land of Jacob Lindsey among his heirs as follows:

1. Lot #1 - 31 acres and 16 1/2 poles: to Anna w/o Robert Pogue
2. Lot #2 - 28 acres and 53 1/2 poles to Barshaba w/o William Mullins
3. Lot #3 - 29 acres and 6 1/2 poles to Mahala Lindsey
4. Lot #4 - 24 acres and 127 poles to Mary E. Lindsey

Robert and Anna were buried in Hail Ridge cemetery located on the outskirts of Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri. The stones have been moved to make way for a Training School property. Some say the stones are kept at the Walnut Hill Cemetery. Research done by descendant Edwin Pogue shows Robert and Anna bought and sold several parcels of property and probably moved around in the area, as they are shown in Benton and Pettis Counties as well as Cooper County. Their main residence was evidently in Cooper County, which the oldest son, William A. Pogue, later bought from the parents.

She is named as a minor child in her father's estate settlement of 1817 in New Madrid County, Missouri, which is correct according to her 1804 birthdate. See below.

1839 - Benton County, Missouri - Land Maps show that Robert Pogue owned land in Benton County, page 11-Sec 1, Township 40, Range Twenty two of Principal Meridian, Nov. 15, 1839, CE 5227, Acres: 54.26 and 51.51 acres. This information is in a original land map book and is kept in the Southwest Office in the Court house at Warsaw, Mo., and is in bad condition. Robert Pogue is listed as a Road Board Member in Benton County, Mo. [As a Road Board Member, he would have to be a resident of the county]

A 'Robert Pogue' is in the 1830 Cooper County Census. Whether it refers to this man is unknown, but the only other person of that name was known as Robert Poage who was married in Boone County, Missouri to Elizabeth Groom, and had several siblings. They moved to western Missouri. Robert Poage died in Plattsburg, Missouri and his family has been researched. In 1812, Robert, Joseph and Michael or Mitchell Poage were in Fort Hempstead in Howard County, Missouri. This fort was located just across the river from Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri. Our Robert Pogue may have been a son of one of these men and settled in the area after the War of 1812. Robert Pogue is mentioned in Cooper County records in the 1820-30 era, but he may have located for a time in either Benton or Henry Counties, and returned to Cooper County before he died. Considering the Will of his son, James Pogue, it would seem James never married. He left his estate to his siblings. Very possibly James lived with his parents and cared for them, he was named guardian of his younger sisters when the parents died in 1852 and 1853.

Probate Records: Cooper County, Missouri:

Dr. H. C. Gibson attended Robert Pogue at his death 6 August 1853 and from the estate of Robert Pogue to James B. Davis: Fine Covered Coffin $18.00, Coffin Box $7.00

Intestate will of Robert Pogue, State of Missouri, County of Cooper. James Rankin being first duly sworn by me Judge of Probate Court of Cooper County on his oath states that to the best of his knowledge and belief the names of heirs of Robert Pogue deceased are William A. Pogue, Jacob Pogue, James Pogue, Sarah M. Pogue, Robert C. Pogue, Barshaba J. Pogue, John C. Pogue, Rhoda A. Pogue, who reside in teh County of Cooper, State of Missouri, Thomas T. Pogue and Mary M. Hardcastle, who reside in Holt County, Missouri. That said Robert Pogue died without a will, that he will make a perfect inventory of the said Robert Pogue, pay the debts as far as the assets will extend and the law devise and account for and pay all assets which shall come to his possession and knowledge.

Signed: James Rankin

Subscribed and Sworn before me this 16th day of August 1853:

C. H. Smith Judge.

I believe the Robert Pollock shown the 1830 census for Cooper County, Missouri is this Robert. The name has many spellings, and it is said it was pronounced POKE - regardless of the spelling. Robert is listed as Robert PAYNE in the census of 1850, also Pollock is the name given to his married sons, William A. and Thomas T. When William A. Pogue was married his name is shown as William A. Pollock and his sister is cited as Mary M. Page. William's daughter is shown as Alice Poage in her marriage 1875 to James C. Evans. Robert's age at death was 52 years.

Marriage Notes for ANNA LINDSEY and ROBERT POGUE:

As there is no background information for Robert Pogue and no records of the marriage of Anna and Robert, it is difficult to give a probable site. Robert was a known early settler in Benton County and the couple later owned land there.

Children of ANNA LINDSEY and ROBERT POGUE are:

11. i. WILLIAM ANDERSON⁵ POGUE, b. 04 Apr 1821, Benton County, Missouri; d. 24 Mar 1896, Cooper County, Missouri.

9. MARY ELLEN⁴ LINDSEY (*JACOB H.*³, *JOHN*², *ABRAHAM*¹) was born 1810 in Tennessee, and died 20 Jan 1881 in Lewis Township, Holt County, Missouri. She married JOHN TAYLOR POLLOCK 30 Jul 1828 in Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri. He was born 08 Feb 1803 in Tennessee, and died 08 Jul 1872 in Lewis Township, Holt County, Missouri.

Notes for MARY ELLEN LINDSEY:

Her name is included in the division of the property of her father in notes for Anna Lindsey.

Notes for JOHN TAYLOR POLLOCK:

After their marriage John T. and Mary Ellen Lindsey Pollock moved to an area 9 miles from Boonville, Missouri where they lived until 1842. From there they moved to Saline County, near Miami. They lived there from May until the following March when a flood overflow from the Missouri River drove them from the bottom land to Oregon, Missouri. In November 1844, they moved to Curzon Switch in Holt County where they lived until 1863. The family started for Denver, Colorado in September, 1863 because of difficult conditions incident to the Civil War. They traveled in covered wagons drawn by oxen. After a trip of many privations, illness, and Indian threat and annoyances, they reached Denver in mid-December. They went to the home of their son, William Perry Pollock, on Clear Creek midway between Denver and the town of Golden on the James Baugh ranch on what is now [1966] West 44th Avenue in the vicinity of Mt. Olivet Cemetery. IN November 1866, the family decided to return to they old home in Missouri. *This account written in 1966 by Ralph V.Minges, Arvada, Colorado, from notes and family research maintained by Clara Belle Swadley Kimbrough**

<Since Mahala Longan, the sister of Mary Ellen, and family lived in this area of Colorado, it is highly likely they moved to be close to her sibling as well as their son.>

Pogue and Wm. Calvert, deceased. Deed 2 April 1853, recorded 6 April 1853.

R.- 263: Robert Pogue to William A. Pogue [all of Cooper County] for $200. 40 acres, being east of the southwest corner of Section 10, Township 48, Range 16.... Suit pending on this title at the time. Deed 23 March 1853, Recorded 4 August 1854.

Q-254: William A. Pogue and wife Sarah A. of Cooper County to Robert Pogue of same place, their right to tract beginning at southwest corner of SE Quarter of NE Quarter of Section 9, Township 48, Range 16 and east and north. Deed 16 April 1849. Recorded 1 February 1853.

William Pogue is found in the 1880 census with son Robert. I have not been able to locate the family in the 1870 census. William lived in Cooper County, Henry County, possibly Johnson County and finally back to Cooper County where he and Sarah are buried. In the marriage records for Cooper County, Missouri we find William A. Pollock marrying Sarah A. Boulton. The Pogue/Pollock name is spelled several different ways. William and Sarah are both buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Cooper County, Missouri which is said to be near the Shipley Monroe Cemetery and located on Robert Miller's farm.

Notes for SARAH ANN BOLTON:

According to an obituary in the Methodist paper, Sarah Bolton was born in Bedford County, Tennessee. She joined the Methodist church in Cooper County, Missouri in 1842.

From: THE ST. LOUIS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE
Obituaries, January 1870 - June 1872

POGUE, Sarah A., wife of William Pogue, died in Cooper Co., MO, 12 Nov 1869. Her maiden name was Bolton; born in Bedford Co., TN about the year 1826 or 1827; joined the Church at Pleasant Grove, Cooper Co., MO in 1842, and married to William Pogue in 1843. She leaves a husband and four children. s/H. N. Watts, California, MO.

Children of WILLIAM POGUE and SARAH BOLTON are:

i. JOSEPH A.⁶ POGUE, b. 1844, Missouri; d. 16 Apr 1864, Andersonville Prison, Andersonville, Georgia.

Notes for JOSEPH A. POGUE:

They spoke of him as 'Uncle Joe, Ma's oldest brother'. He entered the service of the United States in the Civil War, he was captured by the South in a battle somewhere in the east and sent to Andersonville, Georgia prison. There he died. The medical description for the cause of death was Small Pox. His father, William A. Pogue applied for a pension as the surviving parent. In order to show proof of the family, they "tore the family history pages out of the Bible" and sent them to Washington DC along with the Pension Application.

His name is known to me only as Joseph A. Pogue. My thoughts are his middle name was no doubt Anderson.

"Joseph Pogue, a private of Company A, 29 Regiment of Missouri Volunteer Infantry was enrolled on the 11th day of August, 1862, at Boonville, Missouri, for 3 years, and is reported 'on rolls from enrollment to October 31, 1863 present. Roll for November and December 1863 reports him, a corporal, absent, missing in action at the battle of Reinggold, Georgia, November 27, 1863. Not home on subsequent muster rolls of Company.

M. O. Roll of Company, dated Washington, D. C. June 12, 1865 reports him Died at Andersonville, Georgia, April 16, 1864 while a prisoner of war; disease, smallpox. Regiment was in action at Ringgold, Georgia November 27, 1863."They spoke of him as 'Uncle Joe, Ma's oldest brother'. 15. ii. GEORGE LOVE POGUE, b. 28 Jan 1849.

iii. ROBERT CRETH POGUE, b. 27 May 1853, Missouri; m. BELLE EVANS.

'Uncle Rob'. Where did his strange name come from? He named Aunt Ruth and gave her his middle name of Creth. I was given the spelling as C R E T H, but I see the surname Creth in Virginia/Kentucky/North Carolina/Tennessee. I believe there might have been a marriage somewhere back in our history which involved a family named Creath/Creth.

A bachelor, he married Mrs. Belle Evans 'because she worked for him as his housekeeper - and it didn't Look Right for a man and a woman to live in the same house unless they were married'.

16. iv. RHODA A. POGUE, b. 04 Oct 1855.

17. v. ELIZABETH ALICE POGUE, b. 02 Mar 1858, Tennessee; d. 14 May 1943, Howard Co., Mo.

Generation No. 6

15. GEORGE LOVE⁶ POGUE (WILLIAM ANDERSON⁵, ANNA⁴ LINDSEY, JACOB H.³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 28 Jan 1849. He married MADLEY JANE MCDANIEL.

Notes for GEORGE LOVE POGUE:

According to LDS records, Uncle Mike's middle name was L O V E. This is another name that might have come from a surname and could be a clue to another family connection.

Children of GEORGE POGUE and MAIDLEY MCDANIEL are:

- i. LEWIS ANDERSON⁷ POGUE, b. Cooper County, Missouri; m. ELIZA ANN CHENAULT, 24 Dec 1910, Prairie Home, Cooper County, Missouri.
- ii. GEORGE ELZIE POGUE.

16. RHODA A.⁶ POGUE (WILLIAM ANDERSON⁵, ANNA⁴ LINDSEY, JACOB H.³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 04 Oct 1855. She married JOHN MCDANIEL.

Notes for RHODA A. POGUE:

She was small and thin. Wore long dark dresses, talked a lot and very rapidly. She laughed a lot also. Her son, Delmar (a very handsome man who had black hair) married a lady of Italian or Spanish ancestry, she had dark hair and eyes and was a bit 'on the plump side'. Delmar, his wife and 2 little girls, along with Aunt Rhoda (they pronounced her name Rhody) lived in St. Louis and would come to visit us on the farm. They weren't especially our favorite guests. They had a small house dog which they always brought with them and this doggie wasn't house trained. We all hated the messes it made.

Children of RHODA POGUE and JOHN MCDANIEL are:

- i. DELMAR⁷ MCDANIEL.
- ii. SON MCDANIEL.

17. ELIZABETH ALICE⁶ POGUE (WILLIAM ANDERSON⁵, ANNA⁴ LINDSEY, JACOB H.³, JOHN², ABRAHAM¹) was born 02 Mar 1858 in Tennessee, and died 14 May 1943 in Howard Co., Mo. She married JAMES CALVIN EVANS 15 Jul 1875 in Cooper County, Missouri, son of HENRY EVANS and ELIZA HILL. He was born 11 Feb 1850 in Bowling Green, Kentucky, and died 20 Aug 1934 in Boonville, Cooper County, MO.

Notes for ELIZABETH ALICE POGUE:

Her name was Elizabeth Alice Pogue and we knew her as Bettie Alice, but her husband and other family members called her Alice.

Notes for JAMES CALVIN EVANS:

James (Jim Evans) was the oldest son of Clinton C. Evans and Eliza J. Hill. He was born in Bowling Green, Warren County, Kentucky in 1850. His parents moved to Cooper County, Missouri when he was 2 years old. His father was killed by a runaway team when he was 12 years old and his mother never re-married. During the civil war their mother would send the children to a 'brush pile' on the farm with a piece of cornbread and a potato, this is where they hid for safety when they heard several horses approaching. She never knew if this meant soldiers or bushwhackers or carpetbaggers. Obviously all dreaded encounters. Since the youngest child was born in 1860, these were small children and James was in charge of them while in hiding. As the oldest son, James had to help his mother make a living. He split rails for anyone who would hire him. When he became a family man, his 'profession' was in real estate. He bought farms, probably upgraded the property, then sold the farm. The family moved so often the children complained they could never complete a school term in the same school they began in the fall. They mostly lived in Cooper County, might have lived in Moniteau County and finally settled in Howard County.

In later years Jim Evans became blind. Probably he was able to see a bit, because he was able to walk about the country side fairly easy - with the help of his dog. "Old Jim" never had Seeing Eye training, but he knew how to do that anyway. He walked at his master's side and if the man's steps strayed a bit off the path, the dog was there at his knee to gently nudge him back into the road. The story was told that a farmer driving along in his wagon one hot July day happened to come upon Mr. Jim Evans walking to Boonsboro. He stopped and asked if he could give him a ride, to which Jim answered "No thank you, I'm in a hurry". . . . The Evans family were known for their walking abilities.

James Evans died in 1934. He was at the home of his daughter, Minnie Wilcox who resided in Boonville, Missouri when death came. The body lay in state at her home and all the family were gathered there before the funeral, and departed from this home to go to Boonsboro Church for the burial. During the services, Old Jim entered the church, he walked up one aisle to the casket, sniffed at it and departed by way of the other aisle. No one said a word during Old Jim's time of paying his last respects to his companion and friend. To this day, we all wonder how the dog knew to go to Boonsboro on this particular day, also to go to the church.

TRIBUTE PAID TO JAMES C. EVANS

James Calvin Evans, son of Eliza Hill and Clinton Evans was born Feb 11, 1850, at Bowling Green, Kentucky, and died* September 20, 1934, at 12:30 a.m. in Boonville, Missouri, at the age of 84 years, 7 months and 9 days. Buried at Boonsboro, Mo., Sept. 21.

Married Betty Alice Pogue July 15, 1875. Seven children: Ben died June 20, 1915, Mrs. H. A. Wilcox, Boonville, Missouri, Lee Evans, at home, Mrs. N. F. Roberts, Fayette, Missouri, Mrs. H. F. Linstroth, Franklin, Missouri, Eugene Evans, Granite City Illinois, Mrs. Cuthbertson Hull, Franklin, Mo. Nine grandchildren. Two great grandchildren. Two brothers, C. C. Evans of California, Mo., T. V. Evans of Sedalia, Mo., and one sister Sarah Ann Evans, Clarksburg, Mo.

Jim Evans was a friend of mine. For almost forty years I had known him intimately and think I am qualified to speak concerning his good qualities. He was a loving husband and father and faithful to all his friends. He was a good citizen and member of the community in which he lived. We shall all miss him because of his valued friendship. He went through life without ostentation but pursued the even tenor of his way and was just and kind to all who knew him. His going has left a void which will not soon be filled. May he rest in peace.

O. W. COCHRAN

* He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. A. (Minnie) Wilcox

Obituary from Fayette Missouri newspaper

Myrtle Alice Wright, 97, of Fayette, died Tuesday, June 12, 1990 at Keller Extended Care Unit. Mrs. Wright was born May 29, 1893 in Cooper County to James C. and Bettie Alice Pogue Evans. She married Harry F. Linstroth on October 11, 1914. He preceded her in death in August of 1939. She then married Robert L. Wright on December 17, 1942, he preceded her in death in March of 1946. She was a member of the Boonesboro Christian Church since 1914. Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday, June 15, at the Markland Funereal Chapel in New Franklin. Visitation will be one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Boonesboro Cemetery with Rick Quinley, James Walje, Joe Hull, Bill Quinley, Ken Harvey and Tom Collier serving as pallbearers. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Glenn [Betty Louise] Collier of Fayette, four grandchildren, Mrs Ken {Cheryl} Harvey and Bill Quinley of Fayette; Rick Quinley of Lake Jackson, TX, and Tom Collier of Columbia; and several great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Mrs. Roy [Helen Myrtle] Quinley in July 1977, three brothers and three sisters.

Married second: Robert Lee Wright, December 1942, in Fayette, Missouri. Marriage performed by Rev. Allen. Robert Lee Wright was the son of Townsend Wright, and Octavia Jackson. He was born 1882 and died in March 1946. He also had a prior marriage to Evelyn Peacher. Townsend Wright Jr was born 15 Dec 1847, and died in 1904. He was the son of Townsend Wright Sr. and Sallie Barnes, natives of Kentucky. Octavia Jackson was the daughter of Wade Mosby Jackson and Hannah A. Spillman. Her uncle was Claiborne Fox Jackson, governor of Missouri at the beginning of the Civil War.

Notes from a talk with Myrtle recorded by niece Dorothy Jean McDonald and hand copied for the records, 1982
(speaking of the Evans family)

'That was Sally - that was his (referring to her father James Evans) sister. She died in '50. Buried in Moniteau County.

Brothers were Tom, Bill, Riley, Lum and Redmond.

(speaking of the Pogue family)

There was Uncle Rob, Uncle Mike. Rhoda was the sister. When Grandpa Pogue applied for the Civil War pension, she tore the page of family births and marriages out of Bible, it's gone.

Question: If Clinton Evans died young, didn't Eliza remarry? Answer: She had all those boys, she didn't have time to get married.

My dad had to take over. He split rails to make a Living.

Uncle Riley is buried at California, Missouri.

My dad (James C. Evans) went back to Louisville one time for a homecoming. Mama (Elizabeth A. Pogue) used to hear from cousins in Kentucky but she lost track of them.

More About MYRTLE ALICE EVANS:

Cause of Death: Old age and resultant malnutrician

Notes for HARRY FRANKLIN LINSTROTH:

Born in Franklin County, MO. Died in Howard County, MO of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis - better known as the 'Lou Gehrig disease'. His father died by drowning when he was one year old. His mother remarried to John Shaw and the family moved to live on his farm in Montgomery County, Missouri near McKittrick, Missouri. John Shaw had four children, all boys and it seemed the children of Louise were not welcome in his home, therefore Harry spent most of his childhood with his maternal grandmother Anna E. Kiehl. She lived in Warren County, MO near McKittrick. Harry's grandparents and family, including his father, immigrated to the USA from Germany arriving at the port of New Orleans in 1868. He had several cousins in the Linstroth family. Henry, William, another Henry, probably a Charles also. Also Lillian, Catherine and others. In the Hermann, Missouri area were several cousins from his mother's side of the family. Berger, Shannuch, Limberg and Kiehl names.
